

20th EPMeeting

History of Science and Technology

European Scientific Magazine published since 2002

www.epmagazine.org

Second Circular and Draft Program 05 Vers.

Title of Meeting

20th History of Science and Technology (HST) EPMeeting

Organizer

EPMagazine Editorial Board (a pool of European Universities and High Schools)

Local Organizer

Julio Verne High School, Bargas Toledo, Spain

<http://ies-julioverne.centros.castillalamancha.es/>

Aims and Scope of Meeting

EPMagazine Editorial Board wishes to have a confrontation among the partners and with outer parts, in order to evaluate the work done before by members (teachers and students) and to improve the usefulness and the efficiency of our Magazine in favor of the educational strategies of teachers and the improving of the attention of students about the HST.

Moreover, this Meeting aims to bring teachers and students from European Countries together to provide opportunities for them to discuss among their area of interest and give talks about their own personal researches in the field of scientific editorial activities as well as their discoveries about HST

Finally, this Meeting aims to promote scholarly exchanges among European participants and local teachers/students, too.

We particularly welcome participants outside the EPMagazine Editorial Board and topics covering Editorial, Educational, HST areas.

Timing and Location

The conference consists of a few days (Wednesday to Saturday morning and next Monday to Tuesday morning) Meeting. Saturday afternoon and Sunday will be freely used for excursion to Toledo, Madrid or whatever the participants wish to go.

The Meeting dates are DECEMBER 16th to 22nd 2015

(Arrivals on December 15th; leaving approx. on 22nd afternoon or 23rd)

Spanish school Christmas holidays start on th 23rd of Dec., so the closer we get to that date, the more expensive and complicated transport will be. We suggest leaving the 22nd.

Meeting venue and Conference facilities

Julio Verne High School, Vargas Toledo, Spain ~ 59 Km from Madrid

<http://ies-julioverne.centros.castillalamancha.es/>

The best and closest airport is Madrid - Barajas (83 km, one hour by car, one hour and a half by train).

Participants can take a bus or the metro to Atocha train station, in Madrid, and then a fast speed train (AVE – 12 €) to Toledo.

If arrivals of delegations are coincident we can arrange a private coach.

A posters session could be organized, if you require it

Accommodation for students

A number of 30 students could be accommodated in our school families during the meeting for free. We need to know name, gender, e-mail and age of the coming students to make contacts and arrangements on time.

The first compulsory preference will be given to the partners' students (Brasov, Thessaloniki, Fagaras, Catania). The remaining places will be given to other participants following the order of the arrival of the submission form, that you can find at the following address
